Please read the following before answering the next question:

“Conviction” for this application means a final judgment or verdict of guilty, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere, in any state or federal court, regardless of whether an appeal is pending or could be taken. “Conviction” does not include a final judgment or verdict that has been expunged by pardon, reversed, set aside or otherwise rendered invalid. Any person whose criminal records have been erased is deemed under law never to have been arrested with respect to such erased proceedings and may so swear under oath.

A history of criminal conviction(s) will not automatically bar you from consideration of employment. Factors such as the date, severity and nature of the offense, as well as rehabilitation, will be taken into account.

Should you have any questions about answering questions on this application, or your rights concerning erased records, please inquire in the Human Resources Department.
